“ We are thinking of you, Jeff and Brad and your families. Take comfort, knowing that your parents are, once again, together.
Your parents were so very proud of you both - we shared many good chats with your Dad and Grampa.

“ Dear Jeff and Brad and Family. I wish we could attend to remember Aunt Jane. We have you in our hearts and prayer at this time. We had some good time growing up and visiting the funeral home in Woodbridge and coming to the Scott's family reunion. I looked up to both your mom and dad when I was growing up. I will miss Aunt Jane very much. We hope you are able to see the good memories in this time or sorrow. All our thoughts prayer and love to you all. Sheri , Devon and Peyton.

“ Brad & Jeff & families:

So sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. She and your dad, and grandparents as well, were stalwarts of the Woodbridge community for as long as we can remember. And it is sorrowful to see their passing. Our condolences to all.

“ Brad and Jeff, I am so sorry to hear of your mother's recent death. As we all know, just because we are long time participants in this profession, it does lessen the grief and sense of loss that we experience personally. So I extend to you both and your wives, the grandchildren and extended family my sincere condolences at this time. A mother is such a unique person within the family unit for she tends to be the glue that keeps us all together, keeps us coming home and is often the reason for having those family gatherings and when she is gone it becomes that much harder to get everyone together for those special life moments. So be sure to keep her memory alive by talking of her often and expressing when together those unique life moments that you shared with her as a family while growing up and then later as mature adults with families of your own. Brad and Jeff, please know that my prayers and thoughts will be with you all during the next few days as you gather to reflect upon the impact of her life upon yours, celebrating her life and then throughout the coming weeks and months as you adjust to living your own lives in her absence. Remember her well and be sure to take the time to grieve well. Blessings my friends.
