“ Mom

A million times I've needed you. A million times I've cried. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life I loved you dearly. In death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place that no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone. Part of me went with you the day God took you home.

I love you so much mom.
You are and always will be my hero.
Until we meet again

“ Oh Shirley, my heart fell when I read this, we were, and still are kindred spirits
The strength you endured in your life, just added to your wisdom, and a wise woman you were, family, love, integrity. And a damn good dresser, always artsy.
There's a part of me hearing you say "Mary-Lou its so peaceful up here".
Thank you Shirley, for being a part of my life
You are loved

“ This is Maureen Thayer/Way this is the sadest thing i just saw on facebook shirley iwas mine and my sisters Kelly and Eileen best friend growing up through kindergarden through school and hung with with our kids when they were kids i thought we were always gonna grow old together and talk here and their and when they say the good die young they were right casue when they took you it was to son cause you were to young to go we will miss all the fun when we grow up together and we will cherish the memories we had together love you forever to the moon and back sister Moe Thayer
